NOTES AND NEWS

Trustees

On the retirement of the Rev. M. C. Ratter from the administration of the Trust on his removal to South Africa, Mr. Philip H. Milton was elected a Trustee in his place.

Dr. R. Travers Herford

At the age of ninety, Dr. Herford died on November 10th. He had been Secretary of the Trust and Librarian from 1914 to 1925. Signs of his administration are still evident in the orderly and methodical arrangement and listing of Trust documents and papers from the earliest records down to his own time. For the bi-centenary in 1916 of the Founder's death, he wrote the account of Dr. Williams and the work of the Trust that was included in the "Short Account" published in 1917 and now out of print.

Library Subscriptions

As was foreshadowed in these notes a year ago, the Trustees decided to institute a charge for borrowing books from the Library. This came into operation on October 1st and the subscription rate of £1 1s. od. a year has been accepted with a good grace by very many readers. If the present membership is maintained, the financial position of the Library should be sufficiently eased to ensure efficient working. The cost of maintaining even a modest special library such as this is very great and though the new subscriptions contribute only about one tenth towards the total cost of the library, they improve its economy at a vital point—the provision of staff for service to readers and care of the books, for the maximum allowed from Trust funds, under the Charity Commission Scheme of 1910, is £600 a year for Library salaries and a further £600 a year for the purchase of books. Already in Dr. Herford's day, after the first World War, this provision of the Scheme caused grave difficulty in maintaining an efficient Library. What the earlier war made difficult, the later war made impossible. A partial answer has been found in the subscription for borrowing books. But it must be remembered, costs continue to rise: we are still unable to offer all the library services we could wish: we cannot buy (or house) all the books we ought to supply in a special library of philosophy and theology.

Dissenting Ministers and Free Postage

The grant in suitable cases to Nonconformist ministers of free postage on books sent to them from the Library has not been disturbed by the introduction of the new subscriptions. Such postages are paid from a small fund administered by the Trustees for the benefit of "poor Protestant Dissenting ministers." Particulars of the scheme will be sent to any minister who cares to ask for them.

Bibliography of Early Nonconformity

By the generosity of the Pilgrim Trust and of the Hibbert Trust, a thorough recataloguing has been undertaken of the older books in the Library relating to the history of Nonconformity from the days of Queen Elizabeth. Begun three years ago the catalogue has now reached works published in the late seventeenth century and provides a full record of works by author, date and subject. The catalogue is already an instrument of great value for research in the period covered and reveals the richness of the Library in this field. The yield is likely to be even greater as the eighteenth century is reached.

Gifts to the Library

The addition of the note "DON." in the list of accessions gives some indic: tion of the benefit the Library has received from the generosity of its friend: This does not, however, give the full account of gifts to the Library. Som books given are duplicates (and therefore not entered in the list of accession and when in frequent demand such duplicates are very welcome gifts. Man scripts given are also not included in the list of accessions. During the pa year we were grateful to receive amongst other manuscript gifts:—The corr spondence of the Rev. John Seddon (1725-1770, minister of Cairo Stre Chapel and rector of the Warrington Academy) and papers of the Rev. Jol Johns (1801-1847, author of "Come, Kingdom of our God"), both deposite by Miss Anne Holt. Mr. P. A. Spalding has presented the "Journal of residen travels and observations in Britain, France, Belgium, Holland, German Spain and Madeira" by James Grahame, 3 vols., typescript. Mr. Harold I Greenwood, the author, presented "The origins and early history of Indepen ency in Suffolk to 1688." Another study of early Nonconformity, "Presb terianism in Devon and Cornwall in the Seventeenth century," was presente by friends of the late Rev. J. T. Gillespie, the author. A number of lette of Philip Doddridge to Richard Clark and others was presented by Mr. J. W Clarke. The deposit in the Library of old papers and records confers a doub benefit. The giver may be relieved of a responsibility for the care of a precio record and research workers gain access to sources which might otherwis lie concealed.

As these notes were being prepared for the Printer, a most welcome gi from the Wallace Alfred Smith Charity, of £100, was received. Such gifts a of great benefit to the Library.

The Catalogue

It is hoped, at not too distant a date, to publish a catalogue of accessio to the Library from 1900 to 1950. The only existing catalogues, apart fro the yearly Bulletins, are the catalogue of accessions, 1900-1921, and 1922-193 both of which are out of print. Work on preparation of this "Fifty Yea Catalogue" has been going on for some time, but there is much work to b done before publication. The present issue of the Bulletin concludes the 9t volume of the present series and, containing accessions up to December 195 includes the latest additions for inclusion in the Fifty Year Catalogue.

Monkwell Street

Amongst the treasures of Dr. Williams's Trust are the communion plat of this old London Presbyterian Meeting House and the licence taken out b Thomas Doolittle, the first minister of the Congregation, in 1672. The follow ing is an interesting comment from James Boswell's London Journal, 176 1763 (recently published by Messrs. William Heinemann, Ltd., and edite by F. A. Pottle).

> "SUNDAY, 15 MAY. . . . I and two other gentlemen went to Dr. Fo dyce's meeting in Monkwell Street and heard Dr. Blair preach. I though this would have done me good. But I found the reverse. Blair's New Kir delivery and the Dissenters roaring out the Psalms sitting on their back sides, together with the extempore prayers, and in short the whole vulga idea of the Presbyterian worship, made me very gloomy."

James Fordyce, D.D., was minister at Monkwell Street (or Mugwell Stree from 1760 to 1782.
